L2HIS Assessment Statement 2019

Course is endorsable

Year : 12

Course : History

Total Credits : 28

History encourages students to develop a critical world view and New Zealand's unique place in it. The students are able to contribute to the selection of 19th and 20th Century topics to explore which include local and New Zealand history as well as significant events that have occurred internationally. The students continue to develop their research skills collecting and analysing both primary and secondary sources. There is an equal balance of internal and external achievement standards for the students to draw from. Entry Requirements: 14 credits in a literacy rich subject. (14 R, 5 E)
